Dear USCIS Officer,

My name is Iryna Aliakseyeva. I am a citizen of the Republic of Belarus, and a permanent resident of Poland, residing at Lubomirskiego 11 apartment 4 31-509 Krakow, Poland. My telephone number is +48793956158. I am Stefaniya's mother and now I am mother-in-low for David Rutecki.

We have been in contact with my daughter every day for the second year now since she went to work in Manama, Bahrain.

She said that she met an American serviceman and then I found out that they were dating as a couple. They spent their free time together from work.

She talked about the nice little gifts that David gave her. My daughter (in her turn) was preparing a surprise for David for his birthday. She sent me pictures of the cake she ordered and a gift she made with her own hands.

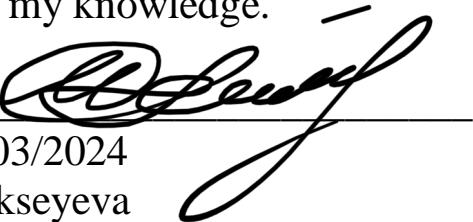

She told me how they met together for breakfast, went to the cinema or the local market, or just walked. She talked about David's family, about who raised him.

She was worried about him when he was far from his home base. And I realized that if a girl is so worried about her boyfriend, it means they have real feelings for each other.

I will not hide the fact that it was a surprise for me to learn that Stefaniya and David got married. She sent me a photo of her holding wedding rings. And I met my son-in-law via video chat. I congratulated the guys and wished them happiness, love each other, respect, and create a big family. I confirm that my daughter and David are newlyweds and all I want is for them to be united and build their family.

I swear, under penalty of perjury, that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

Signed: _____

Dear USCIS Officer,

I am, Julia Alekseeva, I am a citizen of the Republic of Belarus, and a permanent resident of Poland, residing at Dluga 31-2, 00-238 Warsaw, Poland. My telephone number is +48536312504. I am Stefaniya's sister and David Rutecki is my brother-in-law.

I have been in touch with Stefaniya even since we started living in different countries. When she moved to Bahrain, we started sharing with her difficulties regarding living in a new country, and later she told me about her new friends. Some time later she started dating David. I knew about these relationships from the very beginning. Stefaniya sent me their pictures together and shared their stories from the time they spent together. I even showed their pictures together to my friends in Poland. Stefaniya shared with me the idea she had for David's birthday and told me about how David took her to the cinema on her birthday.

I was very happy to hear the news about David and Stefaniya's marriage. We had a video call with our mother and Stefaniya announced to us. I am sure David is a good husband for my sister.

Dear USCIS Officer,

I am, Stefaniya Rutecki, writing to confirm the good faith of my marriage with David Rutecki. I am a citizen of the Republic of Belarus and a resident of the Kingdom of Bahrain, residing at Road 2913 Building 701, Manama, Bahrain. My phone number is +97332038952.

I would like to start from the day we first met. I was introduced to David by an acquaintance. I walked into the place you used to stay in and I saw him painting. It immediately drew my attention because I enjoy painting myself. Once I shared that information about myself with David, he kindly offered me his brushes and paint. It was very nice of him. I genuinely enjoyed painting and talking to him. We talked a lot that day. And it was obvious to us that we were attracted to each other. We exchanged numbers and since then we kept our chat going.

Due to difficult circumstances and the schedule David had while being on active military duty in Bahrain, we could not see each other every weekend. However, we both tried hard to make it happen even for a brief moment.

A few months later I realized that I love David and I see him as my husband, my partner for life. I started daydreaming about us starting our life together. I knew for sure I wanted to have a family with a man like he is. I liked him at first sight and fell in love with him when I got to know him and his inner world. I asked David what he wants from life and he asked me the same question. It was clear to us that we both wanted the same thing – to live our lives happily together.

It is my lifetime commitment to make David happy, indeed.

Sincerely,
Stefaniya Rutecki

I swear, under penalty of perjury, that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
